our [mission]

GoaliePost is dedicated to providing daily updates, resources and professional insight on NHL starting goalies. Through our signature GoalieGrid system, we post the starters for every NHL game and include quick-hitting analysis and advice.

Our mission is to continue to build the world's finest fantasy goalie resource by making you a better fantasy manager. Goalies weigh heavily in all fantasy leagues, so we not only update you on daily starters, but we also provide you with valuable goalie advice.

Now powered by The Goalie Guild, which was founded by DobberHockey and NHL.com writer Justin Goldman, GoaliePost was added to the all-new Dobber Sports Network. As such, we aim to provide the same exact level of quality fantasy analysis you've come to find within the DobberHockey community.

Starting this season, the GoalieGrid will be free to view. But only premium members get our e-mail updates and advice, plus many new fantasy goalie weapons your opponents simply won't have!

the [alliance]

The GoaliePost Alliance was a pact made on March 25, 2011 between three comrades: Dobber, Goldman and Hillen. The purpose? To lead the charge in the fantasy goalie revolution.

As faithful brothers that have fought together to make you a better poolie for five years, they've joined forces to transform GoaliePost into an extremely lethal fantasy goalie weapon.

Let's face it. Goaltending is the key to winning fantasy hockey leagues. So put yourself between the [posts] and let The Goalie Guild provide you with professional goalie analysis.

Hillen created the system. And now Dobber's army and Goldman's insights are providing the strategies and advice.

And now you can join them for just $9.99!
