

ALTERATION MARKS

↑ SURGING: Performances well above average. A fast-rising momentum in all areas of skill development, progression, opportunity and statistics.

↗ RISING: Performances that reflect moderate progress. A goalie with improved output and positive momentum towards our expected potential.

→ STEADY: Performances consistent with our previous update. Goalies evolving at a steady, average rate. A balance of highs and lows.

↘ FALLING: Performances that reflect moderate struggle. A goalie that experienced losses, lacks confidence or sustaining role or potential.

↓ CRASHING: Performances well below average. A goalie that quickly or suddenly lost momentum, their role or a chance to improve upside.

👁️ CLOSE EYE: This goalie is worth watching because his value and upside could explode at any given moment. A potential hidden gem.

🚗 INJURED: Any goaltender that was injured for most of the past month.

NHL DEPTH CHARTS

TEAM	GOALTENDER	DOB	HT/WT	UPDATE	ALT
ANH	Jonas Hiller	2-12-82	6-2, 190	Doctors are still unable to determine what is causing Hiller's vertigo symptoms.	🚗
	Ray Emery	9-28-82	6-2, 196	Will most likely be a finalist for the Masterton trophy, will be an UFA on July 1.	→
	Dan Ellis	6-19-80	6-0, 193	At the least, Ellis has some job security since he is already signed for next season.	→
	Iiro Tarkki	7-01-85	6-2, 192	Signed a one-year entry-level contract after a strong season with Espoo Blues.	👁️
	Timo Pielmeier	7-07-89	6-0, 165	Signed through next season but job security threatened due to Tarkki and Bobkov.	↘
	J-P Levasseur	1-15-87	6-0, 184	His one-year contract expires on July 1 and will become a restricted free agent.	↘
	Igor Bobkov	1-02-91	6-4, 192	Traded from London to Kingston on July 1 but could still earn an AHL gig next year.	↘
	Marco Cousineau	11-09-89	6-0, 195	Will enter the final season of his three-year entry-level contract and is ECHL bound.	→
	Sebastian Stefaniszin	7-23-91	6-0, 190	Unsure what the future holds for one of the NHL's most far-reaching prospects.	↘
BOS	Tim Thomas	4-15-74	5-11, 180	Brilliant playoff run continues but dropped Game 1 of the Stanley Cup Finals to VAN.	↗
	Tuukka Rask	3-10-87	6-2, 165	Has not played in the playoffs after a very respectable .918 save pctg. this season.	→
	Anton Khudobin	5-07-86	5-11, 203	Posted a .920 save % with Providence and is now set to become an UFA on July 1.	↘
	Nolan Schaefer	1-15-80	6-2, 200	At age 31, Nolan is set to become an UFA on July 1, will probably not be retained.	↘
	Michael Hutchinson	3-02-90	6-3, 185	Entering his middle year of an ELC, expect Hutch to earn an AHL gig next season.	↗
	Matt Dalton	7-04-86	6-1, 189	Was swept by the Kalamazoo Wings in the second round of the ECHL playoffs.	→
	Adam Courchaine	2-20-89	6-2, 181	Won the ECHL Kelly Cup title sitting behind the red-hot champ Gerald Coleman.	↗
	Zane Gothberg	8-20-92	6-1, 180	Expect Gothberg to join UND next season and split backup duties with Eidsness.	↗
BUF	Ryan Miller	7-17-80	6-2, 175	Admitted to suffering from concussions after a series of shots hit him in the mask.	↗
	Jhonas Enroth	6-25-88	5-10, 166	Played well in the AHL playoffs and will work hard to prepare for a full NHL season.	↗
	Patrick Lalime	7-07-74	6-3, 198	Legacy in Buffalo will end with a 9-26-5 record over three seasons, he might retire.	↘
	David Leggio	7-31-84	5-11, 179	Did his best in the playoffs and kept Portland alive and will become an RFA on 7/1.	↘
	Connor Knapp	5-01-90	6-5, 215	His only main saving grace is his size, as he's listed at 6-foot-5 and 215 pounds.	→
	Brad Eidsness	6-02-89	6-0, 185	Confirmed that he will be returning to North Dakota for his senior year of eligibility.	↘
	Nick Eno	2-12-89	6-3, 190	Another NCAA product, Eno finished his season 4-10-1 with a meager 3.12 GAA.	↘
CGY	Miikka Kiprusoff	10-26-76	6-2, 187	Overworked in 71 games, Kipper notched 37 wins with a .906 save percentage.	→
	Henrik Karlsson	11-27-83	6-6, 216	GM Jay Feaster stated on NHL Live that he would like to re-sign UFA Karlsson.	→
	Leland Irving	04-11-88	6-0, 177	Big decision coming regarding his future, as Henrik is an UFA and he's an RFA.	↗
	Joni Ortio	4-16-91	6-1, 183	Will definitely earn a spot in Abbotsford for next season as his new ELC kicks in.	👁️
	J.P. Lamoureux	8-20-84	5-10, 169	With the arrival of Ortio to Abbotsford, J.P. will continue to be an UFA in the ECHL.	→
	Matt Keetley	4-27-86	6-2, 189	Finally returned to the lineup and lost his only start in March, finished 0-7-1.	↘

TEAM	GOALTENDER	DOB	HT/WT	UPDATE	ALT
CAR	Cam Ward	2-29-84	6-1, 185	Due to his heavy workload, CAR is seeking a more experienced backup to help him.	→
	Justin Peters	8-30-86	6-1, 205	With so few minutes, Justin will go back down to Charlotte so that he can play more.	↘
	Mike Murphy	1-15-89	5-11, 161	Sensational break-out AHL playoff run really helped establish his Top-20 presence.	👁️
	Justin Pogge	4-22-86	6-3, 204	With Peters heading back to the AHL, Pogge will not be re-signed by the Hurricanes.	↘
	Magnus Akerlund	4-25-86	6-2, 185	Traded from Timra of the Elitserien to Boras of the Allsvenskan on 5/6 for next year.	↘
	Frederik Andersen	10-02-89	6-3, 220	The Danish League's Player of the Year signed on with Frolunda (SEL) for next year.	↗
CBJ	Steve Mason	5-29-88	6-4, 212	A new goalie coach could be the perfect recipe for teaching Mason some consistency.	→
	Mathieu Garon	1-09-78	6-2, 193	As an unrestricted free agent on 7/1, Garon still makes an excellent mentor and 1-B.	↘
	David LeNeveu	5-23-83	6-1, 187	Played in one game for the Blue Jackets and will now become an UFA on July 1.	→
	Allen York	6-17-89	6-4, 185	Has a chance to gather up the starting role in Springfield with LeNeveu being an UFA.	👁️
	M. Corbeil-Theriault	9-27-91	6-6, 192	Performed extremely well in the Memorial Cup tournament behind DeSerres in May.	↗
	Martin Ouellette	12-30-91	6-1, 160	Finished his first season with Maine (UM) 3-3-2 with a .862 save % and a 3.18 GAA.	↗
CHI	Corey Crawford	12-31-84	6-2, 190	Signed a three-year deal worth $8 million total in May and makes $3.25 next year.	↗
	Marty Turco	8-13-75	5-11, 190	Will be seeking any kind of backup gig in the NHL as he becomes an UFA on July 1.	↘
	Alex Salak	1-05-87	6-1, 189	Signed a two-year, one-way contract in late-May and could be Crawford's backup.	👁️
	Hannu Toivonen	5-18-84	6-2, 197	A late-season surge might be enough to keep him in NA as he's an UFA on 7/1.	→
	Alec Richards	6-29-87	6-4, 210	His entry-level contract expires come July 1, so he'll be a restricted free agent.	→
	Joe Palmer	2-19-88	6-1, 205	Didn't play for a few weeks and finished up 10-14-1 with a very weak 4.17 GAA.	↘
	Kent Simpson	3-26-92	6-3, 182	Developed very nicely in Everett this season and will continue to evolve next year.	↗
	Mac Carruth	3-25-92	6-2, 169	Gained valuable experience in a playoff run that ended in Game 5 of WHL Finals.	↗
COL	Brian Elliott	4-09-85	6-2, 198	RFA's tumultuous season ended with a 15-27-9 record and three straight losses.	↘
	Peter Budaj	9-18-82	6-1, 200	Budaj will not be retained by the Avalanche and will become an UFA on July 1.	↘
	John Grahame	8-31-75	6-2, 220	Old man Grahame is set to become an UFA on July 1 and might be re-signed.	→
	Jason Bacashihua	9-20-82	5-11, 175	Cold Hard Cash is also set to become an UFA on July 1 and might be re-signed.	→
	Trevor Cann	3-30-89	5-11, 180	Made huge strides as a first-year pro, spending most of his season in the CHL.	↗
	Calvin Pickard	4-15-92	6-1, 195	Signed a three-year entry-level contract with the Avs and will probably turn pro.	↗
	Kent Patterson	9-15-89	6-1, 180	Elevated his exposure and reputation by playing big after Kangas got injured.	↗
	Kieran Millan	8-31-89	6-0, 185	Will have a nice long summer to prepare for his senior year with the Terriers.	→
	Sami Aittokallio	8-06-92	6-1, 172	Avs need to host a Prospects Training Camp this summer to help mentor Sami.	→
DAL	Kari Lehtonen	11-16-83	6-4, 200	Kari will look to build on a healthy season by training hard once again this summer.	↗
	Andrew Raycroft	5-04-80	6-0, 173	Signed for next season, remember that Andrew is still on a two-way contract in DAL.	↘
	Richard Bachman	7-25-87	5-11, 175	Despite his small frame, Rich has now established his value as a solid AHL starter.	↗
	Tyler Beskorowany	4-28-90	6-5, 204	Big-framed goalie impressed the Stars and should slide nicely into the fourth spot.	↗
	Brent Krahn	4-02-82	6-5, 220	The serious injury plus surgery acted as a huge blow to his future ... UFA on 7/1.	↘
	Jack Campbell	1-09-92	6-1, 171	Although the stats were bloated, his playoff run with Windsor was a key experience.	↗
	Adrien Lemay	10-25-89	6-0, 171	Since he finished the season in Idaho (ECHL), expect him to start there in the Fall.	↗
DET	Jimmy Howard	3-26-84	6-1, 208	Lost the tough Game 7 to San Jose but gained valuable experience along the way.	↗
	Chris Osgood	11-26-72	5-10, 180	Although he is reportedly 100% healthy, Detroit is not sure if they want him back.	→
	Joey MacDonald	2-07-80	6-0, 197	Went 5-5-3 in 15 games for Detroit and at age 31 will become an UFA on July 1.	→
	Jordan Pearce	10-10-86	6-1, 201	After a strong season going from ECHL to AHL, he is set to become an RFA on 7/1.	↗
	Thomas McCollum	12-07-89	6-2, 208	Made his NHL debut, broke a finger, then suffered from a demotion to the ECHL.	↘
	Petr Mrazek	2-14-92	6-0, 185	Logged 52 games and went 32-15-3 with a .920 save % for the Ottawa 67's.	↗
EDM	Nikolai Khabibulin	1-13-73	6-1, 208	Should be an interesting off-season as his DUI will now come back into the spotlight.	↘
	Devan Dubnyk	5-04-86	6-5, 194	Joined Team Canada for the World Championships but was benched behind Reimer.	↘
	Martin Gerber	9-03-74	5-11, 199	Replaced JDD in the first round but was unable to salvage their series vs. HAM.	→
	Jeff Deslauriers	5-14-84	6-4, 200	Pulled in the first round of the playoffs and is now set to become an UFA on July 1.	↘
	Bryan Pitton	1-26-88	6-2, 168	Played well in over 30 games for Stockton and is set to become an RFA on July 1.	→
	Olivier Roy	7-12-91	6-0, 165	He totally bombed in the QMJHL playoffs after signing his ELC with the Oilers.	↗
	Tyler Bunz	2-11-92	6-1, 196	Will attend Canada's Program of Excellence Goalie Camp in mid-June in Calgary.	↗
FLA	Tomas Vokoun	7-02-76	6-0, 195	Now that coach Pete DeBoer is gone, Vokoun might stay in Florida for another year.	↗
	Scott Clemmensen	7-23-77	6-3, 205	Provides Florida with reliability as a backup and will be making $1.5 mil next year.	→
	Jacob Markstrom	1-31-90	6-3, 178	Recovering from knee injury that ended his season early, another AHL year for him.	→
	Tyler Plante	5-17-87	6-3, 191	Americans' Most Popular Player is set to become a restricted free agent on July 1.	↗
	Marc Cheverie	2-22-87	6-3, 183	I'm looking forward to scouting Chevy at the 2nd annual DU Pro Alumni Camp in Aug.	↗
	Brian Foster	2-04-87	6-1, 155	Played well in the ECHL and went 11-6-1 with a 2.30 GAA, but 1-3 in playoffs.	↗
	Sam Brittain	5-10-92	6-3, 215	Only NCAA prospect to attend Canada's Program of Excellence Goalie Camp in June.	↗
	Sergei Gayduchenko	6-06-89	6-5, 227	Finished the year 4-13-5 with a 2.90 GAA and .893 save percentage for CSKA.	↗
LAK	Jonathan Quick	1-21-86	6-1, 200	The only flaw in his stellar first round loss to SJ was his second-period save %.	↗
	Jonathan Bernier	8-07-88	5-11, 184	Graduated from our Top-100 Rankings at the #2 spot - didn't play in the playoffs.	↗
	Martin Jones	1-10-90	6-4, 185	Terrific rookie season plus Zatkoff as an RFA sets Jones up for a starting AHL gig.	↗
	Jeff Zatkoff	6-09-87	6-3, 170	Was solid late in the regular season, struggled in the playoffs and will be an RFA.	↘
	J-F Berube	7-13-91	6-1, 155	After a second-round loss to Lewiston in QMJHL playoffs, he signed an ELC with LA.	↗

TEAM	GOALTENDER	DOB	HT/WT	UPDATE	ALT
MIN	Niklas Backstrom	2-13-78	6-1, 189	He will be working with Jukka Ropponen this summer back in his native Finland.	→
	Jose Theodore	9-13-76	5-11, 185	Hits the free-agency market on July 1 and isn't expected to re-sign with Minny.	→
	Josh Harding	6-18-84	6-1, 197	Is finally healthy again, but is set to become an unrestricted free agent on July 1.	→
	Dennis Endras	7-14-85	6-0, 167	Signed a new one-year contract worth $660,000 and could be playing for Minny.	↗
	Matt Hackett	3-07-90	6-2, 170	Sensational AHL playoff run had him up 2-1 in the Finals against Binghamton.	↗
	Darcy Kuemper	5-05-90	6-4, 201	CHL Goalie of the Year signed a new ELC just a few days before 6/1 deadline.	↻
	Josh Tordjman	1-11-85	6-1, 158	Continues to back up Hackett in the AHL Playoffs as a full-blown UFA prospect.	↘
	Johan Gustafsson	2-28-92	6-2, 194	Finished the regular season with a 2.30 GAA and .911 save % in 26 total games.	↗
MTL	Carey Price	8-16-87	6-3, 219	Lost the classic duel against Thomas, but posted a .934 save % and 2.11 GAA.	↗
	Alex Auld	1-07-81	6-4, 216	After making just $1 million this season, Alex hits the UFA market come July 1st.	→
	Drew MacIntyre	6-25-87	6-0, 173	With a stellar run after the trade to Hamilton, Drew is set to become an UFA.	↗
	Curtis Sanford	10-05-79	5-10, 180	His season was cut short due to an injury in February and will also be an UFA.	→
	Robert Mayer	10-09-89	6-1, 190	Finished his rookie AHL season with a 9-10-2 mark, .890 save % and 3.06 GAA.	→
	Peter Delmas	2-16-90	6-2, 190	Solid ECHL playoff experience sets him up for more opportunities next season.	↗
	Karri Ramo	7-01-86	6-2, 192	Has agreed and signed a new two-year deal with Omsk, his KHL club in Russia.	↗
NJD	Martin Brodeur	5-6-72	6-2, 215	Signed through next season, Marty makes $5.2m in the final year of his contract.	→
	Johan Hedberg	5-3-73	5-11, 180	The Moose will have to lobby hard to re-sign in NJ, he's set to be an UFA on 7/1.	↗
	Jeff Frazee	5-13-87	6-0, 184	A late-season injury hurt his progress and now he's set to become an RFA on 7/1.	↘
	Keith Kinkaid	7-4-89	6-3, 180	Expect him to take on McKenna's spot in Albany to start his pro career next year.	↗
	Mike McKenna	4-11-83	6-2, 195	His inconsistency and age means he will most likely be left as an UFA on July 1.	↘
	Maxime Clermont	12-31-91	6-0, 196	As the top QMJHL playoff goalie, he was 9-6 with a .925 save % and 2.09 GAA.	↗
	Scott Wedgewood	8-14-92	6-1, 192	Attending Canada's Program of Excellence Goalie Camp in mid-June in Calgary.	→
NSH	Pekka Rinne	11-03-82	6-5, 207	Highlight of his playoff run was the double-OT win in Game 2 against Vancouver.	↗
	Anders Lindback	5-03-88	6-6, 198	Appeared in one playoff game for NSH and continues to be a top-flight prospect.	→
	Mark Dekanich	5-10-86	6-2, 191	Recovering from injury and working out as he prepares to be an RFA on July 1.	→
	Jeremy Smith	4-13-89	6-1, 170	Very solid for Milwaukee in the AHL playoffs and is signed through next season.	↗
	Atte Engren	2-19-88	6-1, 184	After his season ended with TPS, he went 2-2 with a 2.43 GAA in Milwaukee.	↗
	Chet Pickard	11-29-89	6-3, 214	Let's just say the best news for him all season...is that the season is finally over.	↘
NYI	Rick DiPietro	9-19-81	6-1, 210	No goalie needs to work harder on their durability over the summer than he does.	↘
	Al Montoya	2-13-85	6-2, 195	His value is that of a starter since he's now playing behind the oft-injured DiPietro.	→
	Kevin Poulin	4-12-90	6-2, 210	Recovering nicely from his busted kneecap and will be ready for training camp.	→
	Mikko Koskinen	7-18-88	6-5, 187	With Lawson out, Mikko will benefit from being paired with Poulin in Bridgeport.	↗
	Anders Nilsson	3-19-90	6-5, 220	Signed an entry-level contract in May after posting an Elitserien-best 1.92 GAA.	↗
	Nathan Lawson	9-29-83	6-2, 200	Is not expected to be re-signed by the Isles and will be looking for a new home.	↘
	Cody Rosen	9-27-90	5-11, 180	Did not log any minutes for Clarkson in February behind Paul Karpowich (STL).	→
	Stefan Ridderwall	3-05-88	6-1, 185	Played in 24 games for Djurgarden behind new Leafs prospect Mark Owuya.	↗
NYR	Henrik Lundqvist	3-02-82	6-1, 195	Played up to his potential against the Caps, but looked tired in the final 2 games.	↗
	Martin Biron	8-15-77	6-3, 180	Collarbone has healed and now he's preparing for another year with the Rags.	→
	Chad Johnson	6-10-86	6-2, 175	Is an RFA on July 1 and should be re-signed by the Rangers to play in Hartford.	→
	Cameron Talbot	6-05-87	6-3, 185	With a strong rookie season as a pro, expect Cam's value to keep slowly rising.	↗
	Jason Missiaen	4-25-90	6-8, 220	Signed a new entry-level contract with the Rangers and reported to Connecticut.	↗
	Scott Stajcer	6-14-91	6-2, 195	Unexpectedly, Rangers signed Stajcer before he blew huge Memorial Cup game.	→
OTT	Craig Anderson	5-21-81	6-2, 180	New four-year contract is a huge reward for his terrific play since arriving in OTT.	↗
	Curtis McElhinney	5-23-83	6-2, 193	After seven games with the Sens, McElhinney is set to become an UFA on July 1.	→
	Robin Lehner	7-24-91	6-3, 220	A sensational run in the AHL playoffs now has him in the Finals against Houston.	↗
	Barry Brust	8-08-83	6-2, 235	Although not officially signed by the Senators, Brust is a goalie worth retaining.	↗
	Mike Brodeur	3-30-83	6-2, 167	Didn't play a game after February 5 and is now set to become an UFA on July 1.	↘
	Pascal Leclaire	11-07-82	6-2, 202	Waived on Friday, Feb. 25 and cleared, lost his only AHL game, injured again.	↻
PHI	Sergei Bobrovsky	9-20-88	6-1, 174	A forgettable playoffs experience won't overshadow unforgettable regular season.	→
	Brian Boucher	1-02-77	6-2, 200	Meltdown v Boston is a real tough way to enter the unrestricted free agent market.	↘
	Michael Leighton	5-19-81	6-3, 192	Signed through next season and will be paid an NHL salary of $1.6 million total.	→
	Johan Backlund	7-24-81	6-2, 198	Will have a new one-way contract clause kick in next season at $800,000 N/AHL.	→
	Brian Stewart	2-19-85	6-4, 195	After making the ECHL All-Rookie Team, Brian is set to be an RFA come July 1.	↗
	Nicola Riopel	2-20-89	6-0, 167	Terrific ECHL season ended with a 24-12-2 record and 2.79 GAA for Greenville.	↗
	Niko Hovinen	3-16-88	6-7, 200	After a breakout season with Lahti, Niko signed a three-year ELC in mid-May.	↗
	Jakub Kovar	7-19-88	6-0, 176	He gets some well-deserved rest after carrying a strenuous workload for Ceske.	↗
PHX	Ilya Bryzgalov	6-22-80	6-3, 210	Aside from Vokoun, Bryz is the big fish in the sea for this summer's UFA pool.	↘
	Jason LaBarbera	1-18-80	6-3, 230	Did not log any playoff minutes for PHX and is set to become an UFA on July 1.	→
	Matt Climie	2-11-83	6-2, 205	Matt has NHL backup potential and will be an unrestricted free agent on July 1.	→
	Joe Fallon	2-01-85	6-4, 200	He went 18-8-1 in the ECHL and only 3-7-0 in the AHL after the Montoya trade.	↘
	Mark Visentin	8-07-92	6-2, 187	Will attend Canada's Program of Excellence Goalie Camp in Calgary in June.	↗
	Louis Domingue	3-06-92	6-3, 180	Signed an ELC at the end of the month and will also attend the PoE goalie camp.	↗
	Mike Lee	10-05-90	6-0, 190	Ended his season 12-14-4 for St. Cloud State this year and posted a 2.75 GAA.	↘

TEAM	GOALTENDER	DOB	HT/WT	UPDATE	ALT
PIT	Marc-Andre Fleury	11-28-84	6-2, 180	Technically elite, but questions exist since he's on an offensively-dominant team.	→
	Brent Johnson	3-12-77	6-3, 196	Appeared in one game in the playoffs and is signed for just $600,000 next year.	→
	Brad Thiessen	3-19-86	6-0, 180	With a strong playoff run in the AHL playoffs, Thiessen is considered the clear #3.	↗
	John Curry	2-27-84	5-11, 185	After losing momentum due to Thiessen's play, he will become an UFA on July 1.	→
	Patrick Killeen	4-15-90	6-4, 204	Could probably hang in the AHL and might have that chance if Curry isn't replaced.	↗
	Mattias Modig	4-01-87	6-1, 170	Suffered a season-ending lower-body injury and will have to start from scratch.	→
	Alex Pechurskiy	6-05-90	6-0, 187	Played well in the Central Hockey League and went 17-14-2 with a 3.04 GAA.	↗
	Patrick Ehelechner	9-23-84	6-2, 175	Logged heavy minutes for Nuernberg Ice Tigers with a 2.90 GAA in 46 games.	→
SJS	Antti Niemi	8-29-83	6-2, 210	Had a bloated goals against average in the playoffs but always gave SJ a chance.	↗
	Antero Niittymaki	6-18-80	6-1, 186	Was healthy by year's end, was 12-7-3 in 24 total games, signed through next year.	↗
	Thomas Greiss	1-29-86	6-1, 210	Will be a restricted free agent come July 1 and the Sharks will look to move him.	→
	Alex Stalock	7-28-87	5-11, 180	Unfortunate leg laceration makes his restricted free agent status a little interesting.	→
	Carter Hutton	12-19-85	6-1, 210	Played well going between AHL and ECHL and is a restricted free agent on July 1.	↗
	Harri Sateri	12-29-89	6-1, 210	Unclear where he plays next year until SJ makes some decisions on their 3 RFA's.	↻
	Tyson Sexsmith	3-19-89	5-11, 210	Third year of his entry-level contract takes place next season and will push for AHL.	↗
	JP Anderson	4-27-92	5-11, 190	Played well in the loss to Saint John's in the Memorial Cup tournament Title game.	↗
	Thomas Heemskerck	4-11-90	6-0, 182	After losing in the playoffs, Thomas mentioned he was unsure where he's playing.	→
STL	Jaroslav Halak	5-13-85	5-11, 179	Should be plenty hungry to work hard this summer and bounce back next year.	↘
	Ty Conklin	3-30-76	6-1, 190	Will be one of the more recognized and reliable UFA's available this off-season.	↘
	Ben Bishop	11-21-86	6-7, 205	Big Ben will become a restricted free agent on July 1, but expect STL to retain him.	→
	Jake Allen	8-07-90	6-2, 185	Despite playoff struggles, his rookie season was without a doubt a raging success.	↗
	Paul Karpowich	10-25-88	6-0, 160	Only played two games in March and finished his year 15-18-2 with a 3.05 GAA.	→
TBL	Dwayne Roloson	10-12-69	6-1, 180	Memorable playoff run came to an end in a beautifully played Game 7 vs. Boston.	↗
	Mike Smith	3-22-82	6-4, 219	Showcased his terrific improvements in the Eastern Finals with a big Game 4 win.	↻
	Cedrick Desjardins	9-30-85	6-0, 192	legit NHL'ers shoulder injury and issues could haunt this unrestricted free agent.	→
	Dustin Tokarski	9-16-89	5-11, 190	Definitely set up to handle a heavy workload with the Norfolk Admirals next year.	↗
	Jaroslav Janus	9-21-89	5-11, 190	If Tampa stays away from adding any more goalies, Janus will play in Norfolk.	→
	Pat Nagle	9-21-87	6-2, 169	Signed on with the Lightning in April after going 18-14-5 with Ferris State Univ.	↗
	Riku Helenius	3-03-88	6-3, 203	Very talented and former high draft pick is a restricted free agent starting July 1.	↘
	Vasily Koshechkin	3-27-83	6-6, 242	After 32 regular season games, Vasily posted a solid .946 save % in six games.	↘
TOR	James Reimer	3-15-88	6-3, 208	After a less-than impressive showing in the World Championships, Reimer an RFA.	→
	J-S Giguere	5-16-77	6-1, 202	Odds are even stronger that Giguere is no longer a part of Toronto's future plans.	↘
	Jonas Gustavsson	10-24-84	6-3, 192	Signed for next season, expect the Monster to potentially play with Reimer in TO.	→
	Jussi Rynnäs	5-22-87	6-3, 205	His only real mission heading into next season is to secure a gig with the Marlies.	↗
	Ben Scrivens	9-11-86	6-2, 180	Could potentially be the AHL starter next season, but for now he's a pending RFA.	↗
	Mark Owuya	7-18-89	6-2, 198	Signed as a free-agent in April after a strong year and playoffs with Djurgarden.	→
	Grant Rollheiser	7-24-89	6-4, 208	He only played in five total games this year, going 3-2 with a 3.98 GAA for BU.	→
VAN	Roberto Luongo	4-04-79	6-3, 205	A Game 1 shutout in the Stanley Cup Finals was one of his best games for VAN.	↗
	Cory Schneider	3-18-86	6-2, 195	Value continues to rise as the free-agency period approaches. No mov't expected.	↗
	Eddie Lack	1-05-88	6-4, 190	By developing nicely this summer, Cory's future move will be easier to stomach.	↻
	Tyler Weiman	6-05-84	6-0, 185	As a pending UFA, rumors already floating around that he's getting offers in SWE.	↘
	David Shantz	5-05-86	6-1, 207	Took over the starter's role in Victoria and finished 25-24-3 with a solid .910 save %.	↗
	Joe Cannata	1-02-90	6-1, 200	Led Merrimack to the NCAA Tourney and finished off 25-10-4 with a solid 2.48 GAA.	↗
	Jonathan Ilihti	4-27-92	6-0, 167	Posted a 2.76 GAA and .901 save percentage in 18 games for the U-20 Blues team.	→
WAS	Michal Neuvirth	3-23-88	6-1, 200	For someone with pretty high expectations, The Great Deceiver lived up to them.	↗
	Semyon Varlamov	4-27-88	6-2, 209	Rumors are swirling that he might get offered big $$$ to play in the KHL next year.	→
	Braden Holtby	9-16-89	6-1, 202	If Varlamov doesn't sign with the Caps, you're looking at the team's new backup.	→
	Dany Sabourin	9-02-80	6-4, 200	A 2.45 GAA in 23 games was solid, but a knee injury makes his UFA status tough.	↘
	Jared DeMichiel	4-16-85	6-1, 190	After going 14-10-4 for South Carolina, he was loaned to Elmira for the playoffs.	↗
	Todd Ford	5-01-84	6-4, 195	Becoming an unrestricted free agent on July 1 is nothing new for the journeyman.	↘
	Philipp Grubauer	11-25-91	6-0, 180	Played very well this year until he succumbed to a serious case of mononucleosis.	↘
	Dan Dunn	6-20-88	6-5, 200	Only appeared in 10 games for St. Cloud State and went 3-4-1 with a 3.24 GAA.	→
	Brandon Anderson	7-13-92	6-0, 163	Struggled to a 17-26-12 record, a .888 save % and 3.77 GAA with Lethbridge.	→
WPG	Ondrej Pavelec	8-31-87	6-3, 220	After a strong World Championships, it won't be easy for him to transition to WPG.	→
	Chris Mason	4-21-80	6-0, 204	Signed for next season, Mason will have a much easier time getting acclimated.	↘
	Peter Mannino	2-18-88	6-0, 190	Signed for next season as well, Mannino is stuck behind Mason for another year.	↘
	Ed Pasquale	11-21-90	6-2, 218	He will continue to battle with Carrozzini for that second spot in the AHL next year.	→
	Chris Carrozzini	3-03-90	6-3, 185	Chris battled Ed in the OHL and will battle him again for an AHL job next year.	→
	Alex Kangas	5-28-87	6-2, 195	Now that his season is over, a summer of injury rehab will be his main focus.	↻
	F. Pettersson-Wentzel	7-23-91	6-1, 176	Signed on with Farjestad, so working with Erik Granqvist is great for his value.	↗